

a text, i'm going to say a text, read a text, standing, nowadays we say texts, it's not a speech, standing is better, it's not time for speeches, it's time for texts, because we have things to say, lots of things to be said, they are in texts, i am reading this text, it's a written text, let's write to each other and we talk about it, everyone wonders about the inauguration of a text, it's a tradition, talking like that always with the word text, it's a trend i didn't think i belonged to, and now, as there's no ribbon, i can't cut it out, i am getting onto this text talking in the place of the text that i don't know how to say, i don't have nothing to say, we all have things to do, eat, we're going to eat later, after the texts, i write this on sunday, but today it's monday, are you going to talk, yes, no, it's said at the start, there isn't much dialogue at the moment between political players, so we are doing politics, we are saying words, you have to get a hold, the fact is, i react, i write a text that will not say what i don't know how to say, itself, and me, my legs are in trousers, i would read the same thing if my legs were coming out of a skirt, but it wouldn't be the same thing, nothing is the same and this place is not a construction site anymore, it's a text factory, with legs and bellies and stomachs that will contain what was prepared by other hands, are they here, who did it? i planned on five minutes, when it's too short it's not a text any more, i drop the word text in the text, in german there's no e on the end, there are two ts that guard it, the ex ex, we'll make it, we won't come out of the other text unscathed, the goose is cooked, we are cooking, we can't yet feel the heat in the pan, that'll come later, it's pre-arranged, with the text in question, controversial, coordinated, we don't need to be beside, we'll pay for it, it pays to have time to say that we'll say nothing, you see, time is passing, i talk, you hear my voice, i am on my feet, i forget my feet while i'm reading, and the hairs and the lapping of the brain, bathing, we'll make it, thanks to the texts, i talk in the plural, it's more powerful, apparently, you have to hold on for a while, like that, standing listening, it's easier to read a text, written on sunday, when i look round there's a fig tree, at marx dormoy, under the construction site at aubervilliers tomato plants have survived, we see that excellent tomatoes survive two years of construction and the heat in august, two thousand and three, it's in our memories, i can say it was so hot at the labos, and these tomatoes, i didn't see them coming, i didn't give them any water, like here, no speech, but there are drinks, there is more to drink, you don't pat yourself on the back for the future, but we're still here, i am paid by social security this sunday 14 september to write this text, last year on 14 september i was in marseille for a funeral, not a political funeral, next year maybe i could be reading a necro-mythical text, we'll throw the tomatoes away if there are any left, in fact, that's enough, that's what happens when the unemployment offices produce, we contribute, that's the end of the text, it's not so serious, it's time to move on to something else, i'm going to reread it, i can still change it, it's fake live, like on telly, i'm looking for the word for the end of the text, to finish saying it, i say it again saying this, it's only the present, the future, i'm getting my run-up, what is to come is unknown but foreseen by the law, texts make the law, aw, aw, aw, i printed it and i read it, looking at my alarm clock, i have measuring apparatus, it's been four minutes, one more minute and that'll do it, do it right, do it as usual, we used to get together in the labos after months of work, it is energy, this building, and we could say thank you after all, thank you who, and since it doesn't end, because you can never thank those who have worked on it enough, the workers and the artists, and now i'm finding the consensus for the end of the text, let's consence to this piece of contestation, we all agree we're not in agreement with the agreement; after that, it's more complicated, it takes longer, and time is money and you can't have it all.
